Part II Effects of Special Transactions (All questions refer to transactions occurring during the tax year.)

Note. Questions 1 and 2. Do not include a coinsurance treaty covering new business of the ceding company which allocates expenses and income items between the ceding company and the reinsurer in the same proportion as the allocation of the risk, and which contains no adjustment based on experience under the treaty.

	Yes	No
1 Does the corporation have in force any reinsurance treaty entered into or amended during the tax year as the ceding company or the reinsurer?
2 Has the corporation made or received any distribution or capital contribution to or from any other corporation, the value of the stock or assets of which is not included for purposes of determining the average equity base of any member of the affiliated group of life insurance companies (determined without regard to section 1504(b))?
3 Has the corporation engaged in any transaction with a contiguous country branch for which an election was made under section 814(g)?
4 Has the corporation had any surplus, capital, or obligation guaranteed by a related person, the value of the stock or assets of which is not included for purposes of determining the average equity base of any member of its affiliated group of life insurance companies (determined without regard to section 1504(b))?
5 Has the corporation changed in any manner its practices and procedures with respect to policyholder dividends? If the answer to any of the above questions is "Yes," and the transaction had the effect of increasing the corporation's earnings rate by .5% or more, (e.g., from 12% to 12.5%), attach a schedule explaining (1) how the effect occurred; and (2) the magnitude of the effect. Note. All transactions with the same party will be considered together in determining whether the transaction had the effect of increasing the company's earnings rate by .5% or more.
